A wide-angle photograph of a spacious ballroom. The floor is highly reflective, showing the ceiling and windows. In the center, there is a long, white, paneled reception desk. To the left of the desk is a large, white planter box filled with white flowers. To the right of the desk are two smaller white planters with red flowers. The background wall is a textured, mottled grey. To the right, there are large windows with black frames, looking out onto a green lawn and a blue building. The ceiling is high with exposed wooden beams, white ductwork, and numerous small, cylindrical pendant lights. A cluster of white, spherical pendant lights hangs near the windows on the right.
